Code of Ethics

Members will abide and follow all fishing and conservation laws and legal requirements contained therein, and will assist newcomers to the sport in learning said requirements.

Members will treat each other, sponsors, other fisherpersons, and the general public with complete respect and honesty at all times.

Members will obey and follow all boating laws and regulations.

Members will show respect and proper etiquette to other stakeholders on the water, on the road, at the dock, and all O.R.W.L. event sites.

Members that are boat owners, will maintain valid liability insurance with a Canadian approved boat insurer, and that said insurance will remain in effect for the duration of their membership.
